Discipline comittee President - John Rumble (Honary Position) Charged with providing leadership and direction to the committee, the President is responsible for ensuring that the committee fulfils its responsibilities for the governance and success. The Presidents is generally the spokesperson for the FCI and other governing bodies and should work to maintain key relationships within and outside the committee. Has the final decision in the event of an un-settled dispute. Secretary-Sue Rumble Vice President / Treasurer-Howard Green Assist the President in general duties, communications and treasurer. Responsible for the registration of new and existing members, record keeping of essential documents and applications for workbooks. All copies of pedigrees, behaviour tests and competition cards to be stored and presented upon request. Supports any of the Officer roles in the event of absence or resignation. Judging Officer - Margaret Mckenna Competitor Officer - Aaron Hanna Decoy Officer - Craig Ogilvie Main point of contact for general queries, FCI judge and representative for all judging related Current or held an FCI International issues, information about the sport. issues, queries, updates to rules and regulations. decoy or extensive knowledge of Representative for competitors. Must be Must be an internationally recognised judge with decoy work nationally and an active competitor or with experience in experience in atleast one FCI recognised sport. internationally. Will be responsable all 3 categories at competition level. Will Ideally having competed with a dog to a high level in for decoy selection in GB and a be responsible for competitor selection in one of the sports. representative at FCI meetings when GB. required.

MEMBERS and JUNIOR MEMBERS